LIFE INSURANCE.

THE KNICKERBOCKER

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF NEW YORK.

Southern Branch, SAVANNAH, Ga.,

A. WILBUR, Manager.
R. D. ARNOLD, Consulting Physician.

THE ONLY BRANCH OFFICE OF LIFE INSURANCE IN THIS SECTION WHERE POLICIES ARE ISSUED AND LOSSES PAID.

ASSETS NEARLY

ANNUAL INCOME NEARLY

$3,000,000.

Annual Dividends nearly 50 per cent.

$73,500 LOSSES PAID BY THE SOUTHERN BRANCH IN TWO YEARS.

THE KNICKERBOCKER IS AN OLD, RELIable Company, and offers as great inducements to insurers as any solvent Company can. Issues Policies on every desirable plan. Loans one-third of Premium to Policy-Holder.

All Policies non-forfeitable, as the insured can at any time, on demand, get its surrender value.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON RESIDENCE OR TRAVEL.

NO EXTRA CHARGE for OFFICERS of the ARMY or NAVY. Officers of first-class Steam or Sail Vessels, or Railroad Conductors, &c.

The "KNICKERBOCKER" is ONE of the TWO Northern Companies whose Policies in the South were kept intact during the entire Rebellion, whose Dividends were accredited to Policy Holders as though Premiums were paid.

And is THE Company that paid all losses after the war, that occurred during the war, thus proving its integrity, the honorable method of conducting its business, and its indisputable solvency.

The KNICKERBOCKER still pays all losses, never disputes a just claim, and is as liberal and SAFE as any Company in America.

Importance of Life Insurance.

Read another forcible illustration of how the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY pays its losses:—

"Received, at Raleigh, N. C., Jan 29th, 1869, of S. D. Wait, General Agent of the Conn Mutual Life Ins Co., two thousand five hundred and forty five dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 84,031 and dividend on the life of my late husband, ——, and I hereby surrender all my right, title and interest in the same to said Company.
(Signed) ——— ———, of Newbern, N. C."

We refrain from publishing the names of the parties, because we do not think it advisable to publish one's private business, but will state although the party had not been insured quite five months, yet received a 50 per cent. dividend of $45 on the premium paid. The dividends of this Company have been larger than those of any other, averaging over 50 per cent. annually, from the beginning, and the present dividend (Feb 1st, 1869,) exceeds the average. On this occasion annual dividend the Directors have, besides declaring a 45 per cent. dividend upon the premium paid, declared a per centage dividend on the surplus reserve arising from interest, which increases the policy holder's dividend annually, and on some policies pays over 70 per cent. this year. They have also adopted a reduced all-cash premium table, with immediate annual dividends.

This company is purely mutual; there are no Stockholders to absorb its earnings. It offers abundant security in a large accumulated fund of over TWENTY-THREE MILLIONS DOLLARS, derived alone from its business, and has $154 assets, securely invested for every $100 of its liabilities. Its plans of business comprise all the desirable forms of insurance.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

H. W. ST JOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Polices at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 47, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. CODLE.....Secretary.
D. F. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., L.L.D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guarantees a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the most LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. F. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptness in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

LETTER OF MISS SALLY WALKER TO GOVERNOR HOLDEN—MISS SALLY'S LETTER TO THE EDITOR AND EDITOR'S REPLY.

FLAT RIVER, ORANGE CO., Feb. 9th, 1869.

His Excellency, Governor W. W. Holden:

As I have stated to you in four different letters, and a couple of notes from gentlemen, in full, about Roberts illegal proceedings against me, and as it is out of your power to assist me, and that my only course is to obtain legal advice, and as you have those papers from those gentlemen and my statements as full as I could make them, you will please let Mr. Turner see the whole of them, so that he will be able to give me the necessary legal advice which I need; for if Roberts' illegal, wicked policy is allowed to go on, it will be a disgrace to our country, and every kind of assailant can say and do what they please with me, and no way for me or the law to touch them; and as one of your subjects I again appeal to your Honor for aid and protection, and to aid and assist Mr. Turner in executing justice and protect the character of an unprotected female, one of your helpless, unprotected subjects.

SALLY WALKER.

FLAT RIVER, ORANGE CO., Feb. 9, 1869.

Mr. Turner:—When you were chosen a candidate by the white folks, some of the Radicals about here, hearing me speak in behalf of your election, persuaded me, as you had spoken against me in the Court House, to do and say all I could against your election. I told them no, I would not, and that, for the sake of our beloved country, I would say and do what I could for you. I heard afterwards, that you said it gave you no pleasure to say what you did of me in Court, and that you would not do so again; yet in the case of Ben Ellis, I discovered you did all you could against me. But I suppose I must make a due allowance for a lawyer's pleading for his client, but I desire for the future that all harsh sayings and doings shall be done away, and that for the sake of our beloved country—and that all white people may treat each other as brethren, just like the white negroes treat their black brethren,—standing with them in undivided and united ranks, and by this means our beloved country will once more flourish and prosper. And as you being the Editor of the Sentinel, and a good part of your time in Raleigh,—and as Capt. W. Roberts has treated me so much amiss that I have been forced to write to Governor Holden four different times, about the case—Governor Holden wrote to me the law, and what a magistrate was bound to do, and that as I had got a lawyer to write to Roberts and pray an arrest of judgment for me, Governor Holden said, as the case stood that it was informal, and that my prayer for an arrest of judgment ought to be granted, &c., &c., &c.

When I showed the letter to Roberts, he threatened me, and said, if I did not stop my proceedings, that he would have me arrested, and brought before the United States Court, for treating him, or the Court, with contempt, and that he intended to inform Governor Holden all about what he said that I had said about Gov. Holden. Roberts went to Raleigh, but what he told Governor Holden, God only knows.

I wrote to Governor Holden again, but got no answer. I wrote again and got no answer. I wrote again the third time, and Roberts was in Raleigh, when Governor Holden got the last letter, and the Governor answered that one, and said he was sorry that it was not in his power to assist me, and further said, my only course was to obtain legal advice.

And, as a very worthy friend of yours told me, you could and would do me more justice than other persons, and as you are in Raleigh, and can go or send to Governor Holden, for him to let you see the lawyer's papers for our arrest, and our statement to the Governor in full, better than I can now write them over again:

And if you can feel disposed to give me the necessary legal advice, that I need, to arrest the shameful and disgraceful proceedings of Capt. Roberts, and make him suffer for it, and assist me in so doing, I shall feel under lasting thanks of gratitude to you; and, if so, you will present my note to the Governor for all those letters and papers pertaining to the case.

Roberts boasts and justifies himself in doing so, because my character was slandered in Hillsboro' Court. Yet you know, my oaths have never been set aside, and, in variably, in every case, those persons I informed against, were convicted.

And, now, Roberts, to gratify his own prejudiced feelings, acted contrary to law, by refusing to let me swear to my account, and says he defies me, Governor Holden or anybody else, to stop or prevent the execution of the law against me. Attorney General Coleman wrote me, that my only chance was to appeal. If there is any chance for an appeal, I do not know how to do it.—Please tell me how. Roberts' said I was obliged to pay it, or stay it, right at first, and I stayed it to get some time to consult Governor Holden, and as Governor Holden threatened the magistrates of Granville if they did not find somebody guilty in behalf of a negro, that they should be turned out of office, and I thought by that, it was in his power to turn them out, but from what he writes I must have been mistaken, for surely he will do as much for an unprotected old woman's character as he would for a negro.

I told the Governor I knew there was some way to make a magistrate suffer if he refused to comply with the law, but how to do it I don't know. Please tell me how: for if Roberts is allowed to carry on his shameful and disgraceful policy against me, any kind of assailant can come to my house (as I have no protection) and treat me just as they please, and there will be no way, on earth, for me to help myself and all the dreadful, regated wretches know it, and some have already been dancing and singing about it in my presence.

I do think, if gentlemen would make the Radicals know that they should comply with the law when required, that it would be a blessing to the country. And I appeal to their honor for protection.

Please write me by the next mail, and inform me what you are willing to do, and you will more than oblige me; also inform me if it will subject me to much trouble, for I am old, and not able to take troublesome business on hand. I hope Gov. Holden will aid you, as I have directed him.—If so, may the blessings of God be with you both. Inform me what he says about it.

Respectfully,

SALLY WALKER.

P. S.—While writing the above, the Sheriff came to execute my property. I tried to prevail with him to hold up the execution a few weeks, but he would not, and was then going to execute Mr. Wheeler's, and rather than let Mr. Wheeler be pestered, I paid the money.

Roberts says I was welcome to turn him out of office, and make him suffer if I could, and said, by my paying the money, it would make him suffer the more, and right or wrong he would not grant me an arrest of judgment.

SENTINEL OFFICE, Feb. 24, 1869.

My Dear Miss Sally:—Your letter was received last week, and imposed upon me the very unpleasant duty of a business transaction with Governor Holden.

I sent him your letter, as you desired, and addressed him the following note, asking for your papers:

Governor Holden:—One of your female subjects, Miss Sally Walker, of Orange, requests that I should deliver to you the note which accompanies this.

Miss Sally is one of your victims of peaceable secession. She once had great confidence and faith in you, your paper, and your doctrine of peaceable secession. She tells me honestly in all three.

It is be the pleasure of your Excellency to comply with the wishes of your loyal lady subject, Miss Sally, the bearer of this, Hon. Ed Badger, stands before your Excellency, and will receive from your Honor's hands, Miss Sally's papers. I might here add that the "Honorable Ell's" old master, also learned from your Excellency's teaching, all about the doctrine of peaceable secession.

Yours in the Union,

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr.

The Governor returned your letter to me, saying that "due attention had heretofore been paid to Miss Sally's request, and that he was unable to relieve Miss Sally from the due course of law." He declines to correspond further, as he feels unable to do justice to the case of Miss Sally (now in a magistrate's hands.)

Your troubles and distresses, Miss Sally, are no causes of uneasiness to him. You know it was always a source of comfort to me, that my political conduct did not meet with the approbation of this award and negro elected Governor.

If you had been a negro or scallawag, I think the Governor would have sent me your paper, at least, after the request so humbly made on your part, and so politely seconded on my part. He is "unable to relieve you from the due course of law," because your case was in the hands of a magistrate."

Let us examine and see, Miss Sally, if that be true. Last week there was a scallawag by the name of Henderson Adams, who occupied a room of the Supreme Court. He was ordered to vacate, and he refused to do so. The Court undertook to punish him for contempt, and ordered him to jail. The Governor rescued the prisoner from the hands of the Grand Marshal of the Court, and it is said, ordered one of his scallawag militia officers, if necessary, to call out men to prevent the execution of the order of the Court. If he can take the cause and body too, of a great ugly scallawag man out of the hands of five Judges and the Marshall—can't he take the case of a helpless old woman out of the hands of Squire Roberts, one of his own appointees?

If he would go to Flat River, and "cuss" before Squire Roberts, like he did before Chief Justice Pearson, to get the case of Henderson Adams out of the hands of the Court, he would soon get your case out of the hands of Squire Roberts. Don't understand me, Miss Sally, as saying that would be the proper way for the Governor to give you relief, but the beauty of all law consists in the uniformity of its execution. Executing it on all alike, to use the carpet-bag phrase "equality before the law."

I remember, Miss Sally, when you ranged yourself willingly, under the banner of Holden, when he lead in secession, he denounced me then, as an abolitionist and enemy of the South. He now denounces me as disloyal; he is as dishonest and insincere in his denunciations now, as he was then.

In each case, he was looking to his own party, and personal aggrandizement, not heeding the interest of God, country, or conscience. There is nothing wicked, Miss Sally, in politics, that he has not engaged in. The first preacher in secession and the first appostate from it, he signed the ordinance of secession. He called the war "God's holy cause." He urged your neighbor's children into the fight—he now wishes to make their memory odious—after they had fought and fallen in the war which he called "God's holy cause." He was, as you know, the morning star of the assassination. He first asked "who would plot for the head of Abe Lincoln."

You can't get your papers from him, Miss Sally, without bringing an action at law in detinue, for the wrongful detention. Your old friend, Mr. Norwood, will I know, willingly advise with you as to how to get your papers from the Governor, and all other matters in which you are aggrieved.

To show you, that if the Governor does "cuss," and visit grog shops, and drink by himself, and refuses to give you your papers, he once had manners, and put on a courtly bearing to ladies.

Thursday, the 13th day of May, 1863, as a member of the secession Convention, after pledging to the men of his country, his life, fortune and sacred honor, to make secession good, and pledging the last man and last dollar, in his paper, the Standard, he says, in a resolution, the last work and words of that Convention:

Mr. Holden introduced the following resolution, which passed unanimously:

Resolved, unanimously, by this Convention, that the thanks of the people of North Carolina are due, and are hereby tendered, to the ladies of the State for the contributions which they have made to the Confederate cause, and for the patriotic ardor which they have exhibited in behalf of the country in the prosecution of the war.

Dr. Franklin made it a rule, if he could say nothing good of a man, not to speak of him at all. I never heard, and, therefore, can say nothing good of Holden; but, as he behaved rudely to you, and refused you your own property, I send you this resolution from him, as some compensation for the loss of your papers.

The Governor's friends say, he will sue me for slander. I tell them, Miss Sally, as you know, the only way to slander him, is to underrate his meanness.

And now, Miss Sally, I must close my letter, regretting my inability not to have rendered you more efficient aid in your troubles; and to say, the English language does not afford language sufficiently strong in which to condemn a Governor who will refuse to surrender to a lone woman her four letters, and her lawyer's opinion, of her cause, which gave her so much trouble.

Very truly yours,

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Feb. 27, 1869.

PETITIONS.

Mr. Cook presented a petition from the merchants of Wilmington, protesting against the passage of the bill relating to the weighing of Rosin at the Port of Wilmington. Referred, to the Committe on Agriculture and Mining.

Mr. Robbins presented a petition from E. F. Miller, of Salisbury, he having paid the tax of $50 to retail spirituous liquors, and having been deprived of that right by an order of Gen Sickles, asks the General Assembly to authorize the Treasurer to refund the tax.

A message was received from the House transmitting the following bills, which were appropriately referred, viz:

Bill to incorporate Middle Falls Manufacturing Company, in the county of Richmond.

Bill in favor of Jonathan Mann, late Sheriff of Stanly county.

Bill to establish the Wilmington Water Works Company.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Respass: A bill relating to the Pilots at Hatteras and Ocracoke Inlets.—Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

By Mr. Reid: A bill to authorize the construction of a Toll Bridge across John's River, in Burke county. Referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Mr. Sweet moved that the rules be suspended in order to consider "A bill to amend an act entitled an act to amend the Charter of the Oxford Branch of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

He said he desired to state briefly the purpose of his bill and the importance of immediate action. It will be remembered that at the commencement of this session a bill elaborately prepared, was introduced to authorize a sale of the stock of the State in her Railroads. This proposition aroused such a storm of indignation that its friends allowed it to sleep the sleep that knows no waking. Senators will be astonished to learn that a private law railed on the 3rd inst. authorizing the sale of every dollar of Railroad stocked owned by North Carolina. In this private bill nestling like a kernal of wheat in a bushel of chaff, is this objectionable provision.—This provision invites capitalists to impair our credit, until they can go into the market and purchase, for a mere nominal consideration and by an exchange of them under this provision, wipe out, under the form of law, some twenty millions of Railroad stock owned by North Carolina. As to the importance of immediate action. The section, alluded to, reads as follows:

SEC. 14. Said Eastern and Western Railroad may, at any time, before maturity, purchase the stock of the State of said Company, by returning to the State a like amount in coupon bonds of the State, or any other indebtedness of the State, or in national currency, and any Company in which the State is a stockholder, may, at any time within the said time, avail themselves of the same privilege, provided such corporation shall, within twelve months after the ratification of this act, notify the Governor of the State of its adoption.

You will observe, Mr. President, that Railroad Companies are invited to accept this section so a part of their respective charters, and, when this is done, the question of vested rights will be interposed to defeat any attempt at repeal.

Messrs. Graham and Welker followed in advocacy of a suspension of the rules, and Messrs. Winstead and Lassiter opposed it.

The motion was lost.

NAYS.—Messrs. Colgrove, Forkner, Hayes, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Martindale, Smith, Stephens, Winstead and Wilson—10.

AYES.—24. Required 26 to suspend the rules.

PRIVATE BILLS.

The following bills passed their several readings, viz:

Bill authorizing the Sheriff of Washington county to collect arrers of taxes.

Bill to amend the Charter of the town of Jamesville.

Bill to incorporate the Currituck Club Steam Boat Company.

Bill to amend an act to incorporate the Carrollton Copper Mining Company of Baltimore.

Bill to protect the State against the fraudulent sale of property, for the use of the Penitentiary.

Mr. Robbins moved to insert an additional section, to-wit: That the State makes no claim to the bonds, for which as if bonds were issued in payment, and the parties to whom the same were issued, are hereby required to return said bonds to the Treasurer of the State, which was adopted, and the bill passed.

NAYS.—Messrs. Cook, Davis, Galloway, colored, and Stephens,—4.

Bill to incorporate the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company.

Mr. Ellington presented the report of the Commissioners of Rockingham county.—Referred.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The bill authorizing the Commissioners of Alamance county to issue license to sell liquor at the Company Shops.

Mr. Moore, of Alamance, said that as a citizen of that section individually, he had no feeling upon the subject, one way or the other. He held in his hand a petition signed by all the prominent citizens of the Company Shops, and by sixty ladies praying that the law prohibiting the sale of liquor might not be repealed &c. The Company had refused time and again, a thousand dollars additional rent a year for the Hotel, with the privilege of bar. The object of the Company in objecting to the sale of liquor at the Shops, was to endeavor to enforce a right system of temperance amongst the employees of the Road, who were daily and hourly called to take charge of trains freighted with human lives and human interests. He, individually, felt no interest in the measure, but as a matter of public policy, every member on this floor was as much interest in it as he, and he would leave it to the calm judgment of the House whether or not they should repeal the law, &c.

Mr. Allison said he understood that bill had been indefinitely postponed in the Senate, and did not see how a dead bill could come over to this House.

The Clerk read the petition offered by Mr. Moore in regard to this matter.

Mr. Ellington said he said he supposed the bill got over here by the spirits in it.—Mr. E. then proceeded to argue in favor of the bill.

After considerable debate, Mr. Allison moved to indefinitely postpone the bill and called for the yeas and nays.

The call was sustained and resulted in the adoption of the motion by a vote of yeas 55, nays 8.

Mr. Justice, of Rutherford, moved to reconsider the vote just taken.

Mr. ——, moved to lay the motion on the table. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Stilley, the rules were suspended, and the bill to amend the charter of the town of Washington, N. C., was taken up and passed its several readings.

Mr. Ellington arose to a question of privilege. He saw in the Sentinel of day before yesterday, in the report given by some one of the remarks of the member from Granville, (Mayo,) a clause doing to him, (Ellington,) great injustice, as one reading the aforesaid report would infer that he did not favor the tax on wine whereas he had introduced an amendment taxing it, and potatoes when they were used in the distillation of a mean species of whiskey. &c.

After a confused debate upon innumerable points of order the House adjourned until Monday morning, at 10 o'clock.

C. C. PELL,

March 1-4t General Business Agent.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with stronger possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to imitate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with its unadulterated character of the aldehydic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diuretic ingredient as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a circular form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as the trade mark, in the United States Courts for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the parties who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the precautions so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have prevented the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however, not to have diminished the capacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the advertisement in which the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the learned profession has been claimed by meddlesome humbugs; the labels and bottles have been pictured, his advertisements paraphrased, the circumstances, lied, and worse than all, dishonorable dealers, after disposing of the genuine contents of the bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process, unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive principle.

Complaints have been received from the leading pay-masters and families in the southern States of the use of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the unwonted influence of new and unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such persons as they may ascertain to be engaged in the nefarious system of deception. In consequence, the undersigned would say that he has provided, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the genuine Schiedam Aromatic schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should prevent the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has employed scientific research, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ounce of the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to the legal profession generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the contrivance who counterfeit these evidences of identity, and he begs to call upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that no goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medicinal patronage. At all events, it is the purest peculiar article of Holland gin, (excessive unobjectionable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

We would recommend you to appoint some of the respectable apothecaries in different parts of the city as agents for the sale of your Brandies and Wines, where the profession can obtain the same when needed for medicinal purposes.

Wishing you success in your new enterprise,

We remain your obedient servants,

JAMES ROBINSON'S CHAMPION CIRCUS—An establishment of more merit and attractiveness than any which has yet been brought South, is shortly to visit Raleigh, on Wednesday, the 10th inst. Mr. Chas. C. Pell, or rather Pell, the Pilot of shows through the South, as our contemporary of the Charleston Courier styles him, is the "man in advance," and his presence can be set down as conclusive evidence that a most excellent circus is on the road. The Mr. James Robinson, is the same little fellow, who, some fifteen years ago, was such a favorite in the South. He has not been here for a long time, having made one of the most extended and triumphant tours on the Continent of Europe, ever achieved by an American artist. His circus is well organized, and has met the unqualified approval of the Press and people, wherever it has been exhibited.

CUFFEE MAYO'S VISIT TO THE SENTINEL OFFICE—HE MAKES A SPEECH.

On Thursday evening last, Cuffee Mayo, Representative from Granville County, called at our office, and after making application for a Daily Sentinel, addressed the Local Editor and Clerk, as follows:

"Gemmen, whosoever ported mi speech in de paper, ported me wrong. Now I never made no sich a speech, fur I can talk Inglish language as well as eny body else kin uv mi color. Gemmen, who ever dat man was dat reported me is not got sence enuff tur lede a blin gase tur warter. Now, gemmen, I've allers bin a frien tur de white man, allers like mi own people, i want tur liv and die here. I have allers wanted peece and hominey tur reinat tween the two rases, but ah, Gemmen, I tell yer dat I made no sich a speech. I don't bleve Mr. Sime would a ported me in that way.—I thinks I can onderstan all about it now, i do. Dare is a man, a nigger man, down in mi kounty who iz, an haz bin, tryng tur git mi plase in de Legislatur, an bekase, he cant git it, he iz mad. Now gemmen he iz got no sence. Now gemmen, I never has had eny purlitikel iducasion, an, darfore, dont no much in dat line, but i would like tur know who dat man iz, as I sed before, he aint got sence enough tur lede a bline gase tur water. Gemmen i bid yu good arternoon—but, gemmen, befo I go I wants to show you how kine I has been to my white frens, when de war was gwine on I is got an outer my bed a many a time to give er piece er meat and bread to de rebels cause I knowed dey was my people.—Now, when I arguly a subjic agin I hope I shall be ported cordin to de bility dat I those out an not like a idiot gist from africa. Good arternoon gemmen, I feel you is gwinter do me gestice. I is sorry, gemmen, dat I had to repear befo you, but a large number of my frens didn't like fur to see me parralized to a idiot gist from africa dey consisted upon it, an, darfore, I has put myself at your exposure.

[It will be seen, from the above, that the boys in our office have had a word with the Granville member. We say it, in all sincerity, that Cuffee Mayo, if he did steal a pistol, is more entitled to the respectful consideration and forgiveness of honest men than the signers, preachers, and teachers of secession, who now cry out, treason must be made odious.]

ANOTHER SAD VISITATION.—William S. Battle, Jr., is no more. On Sunday last from the midst of an unbroken family circle his noble spirit took its flight to that unknown land beyond the stream of life, and on Tuesday, arriving from Rocky Mount and followed by a large and mourning concourse of friends and admirers, his remains were consigned to Calvary Cemetery to their mother earth.

In the death of this most excellent and exemplary young man North Carolina has lost a a true citizen and promising son, while society will search in vain for another jewel of like worth. Many, many will weep tears of bitterness o'er this youthful and and suddenly made grave, above which, in bavenly letters is written, "In the midst of life we are in death."—Tarboro Southerner.

FIRE IN CHICAGO—A MAN KILLED WHILE ATTEMPTING AN OUTRAGE—TWO MEN FROZEN TO DEATH.—Chicago, Feb. 24.—A fire occurred this morning, originating from spontaneous combustion, in the varnish shop of H. N. Parson, who loses $12,000.—Hollister & Phelps, carpet manufacturers, lose $10,000. Other occupants of 135 and 137 Lake street was damaged by the fire.

A woman named Welch killed James Devon, in Alton, on Monday night, while attempting to outrage her.

Two brothers named Sutten and a man named Debbie started to walk across the prairie this morning from Carrol Station, Iowa. Sutten and Debbie were frozen to death. The younger Sutten had to have his feet and hands amputated, from frost.

A practical chemist of Wilmington, (Del.) has ascertained by actual experiment that raw Cuba sugar has so many insects that each pound of it probably contains 250,000 of them!

CARPET-BAG IMPUDENCE.

On Thursday last, Mr. Love, on the floor of the Senate, in the course of remarks on the "school bill," took occasion to say, in opposing the 41st section, which gave the Superintendent power to approve of the establishment of schools with a less number than thirty pupils, that he did so, because the Superintendent had told him, that "where there was only one or two colored children in a district, they would have to be taken into the white schools." Mr. Ashley, who was sitting just before Mr. Love, shook his head. Mr. Love replied, that the gentleman might deny as he would, still his (Love's) statement was true. Mr. Ashley shook his head violently. Mr. Love remarked, that the gentleman might shake his head until it fell off, it would not affect the truth of the statement, and added, that, in the same conversation, he (the Superintendent,) remarked, if this right was denied the colored children, where they were few, even one only in a district, he would compel the residents in any such district to build a separate school house for such colored child, and furnish it with books, maps and charts, and employ a teacher. Mr. L. further said this conversation was at the time he handed to Mr. Ashley the report of the County Commissioners of Macon county, and that the small number of colored children in that county provoked the remark.

Was such impudence ever heard of before? A man from Cape Cod—not a member of the Senate—allowed to take his seat in that body and to raise a question of veracity with a Senator while addressing the Senate! This impudent carpet-bagger seated himself in the Supreme Court room and raised a disturbance with that branch of the government. Now, he raises a disturbance in the Senate.

If the Governor will issue a writ of election to the people of Cape Cod, and they will elect Pilgrim Ashley, he may raise questions of veracity in the Senate.

Pilgrim, will you force the Senate to conquer a peace as the Supreme Court did? Are you to disturb every branch of the government?

We say, Pilgrim, "let us have peace."

TURKEY AND GREECE.—Although it seems to be generally admitted that the quarrel between these two countries has been settled without coming to blows, yet it appears that Turkey was making preparations for a conflict of some magnitude, since it is announced that a number of vessels have been chartered in the port of Trieste by the Turkish Government for the purpose of conveying military stores and ammunition of war to all the ports in the Ottoman empire.

A Card.

SELMA, JOHNSTON CO, N. C., February 25 1869.

My attention is called to the advertisement of E. G. Hill, in yesterday's Standard, offering to sell my interest in certain property to satisfy an Execution in his hands, and inviting capitalists to the sale

This contemptible fellow, Hill, who kept out of the Confederate service upon the ground that he was not a citizen of the United States, strange to say, was permitted by the Commissioners of the County to qualify as sheriff upon giving an insufficient bond in the sum of five thousand dollars." This Execution which his mean, low nature prompts him to blow about and advertise, is for the sum of $120 and costs; it was sent to him from Wayne County, where judgment had gone against me by default, in my absence, and instead of presenting it to me for collection, which any other man but himself would have done, he has never said a word to me about it, but used the high office of sheriff, acting under a five thousand dollar bond, to gratify the spite and hatred which he has for all white men, and especially "gentlemen" for whatever he has any papers against such, he shows them to every one and the public in which he comes in contact.

This is only put in for the benefit of those who do not know the man. Capitalists, who wish to invest, can do so privately, as I have a large number of Lots and Land unencumbered in any way which I—not Hill—will sell to them.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN,
Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES, INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

Gov Geary, Judges Agnew and Williams all declare McClure's papers urging Gen. Grant to appoint Custis, forgeries.

The Senate passed the suffrage amendment.—It now goes to the State Legislatures. It confers no right to hold office.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27, M.

The Senate considered the resolution retaining a portion of the Pacific Railroad bonds in order to insure first class Roads, but postponed it in order to consider Schenck's bill strengthening the public credit.

HOUSE.—Blackburn moved an amendment, that "Simon Jones was entitled to a seat," which was lost. The Committee's resolution, "that Jones was not entitled to a seat," was hissed.

The resolution declaring the seat vacant to Hunt and Menard, came up.

The contestants were allowed fifteen minutes. It was suggested that Menard speak from the Clerk's desk. Menard said, he appeared more to acknowledge this privilege than to make an argument. He would be recreant to nine thousand of his race, whose votes sent him here, did he not vindicate their rights.

He claimed no special privileges on account of his color.

Hunt declined to speak.

The case is still progressing.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27, P. M.

McClure publishes a card which discredits the exactness of the reports of his interview with Gen. Grant.

It is stated that McCulloch and Browning, will resign,—the resignations to take effect on Monday.

The Senate wing of the Capitol, will be closed, except to holders of tickets on the fourth of March.

Gen. Grant visited the House to-day, and sent for Boutwell, with whom he had a long conversation, regarding Georgia, Virginia, Mississippi, and Texas, also conversed with Bingham afterwards.

The members generally gath red around him.

Gen. Grant's father and sister arrived here today.

Gen. Grant opposes the unseating of the Georgia representatives, and the postponement of Georgia matters by Reconstruction Committee.

Gen. Young, member of Congress from Georgia who is on warm personal relations with Gen. Grant, had an interview with him last night, regarding Georgia matters. Gen Grant said, that Congress could not get around recognizing Georgia as a State in the Union, and that he, himself, was opposed to interfering with her at all.

Gen. Grant's visit to Boutwell, this morning, grew out of this interview.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27, P. M.

SENATE—A resolution directing the President to transmit immediately a copy of the constitutional amendment to the State Legislatures, meeting objection, went over.

A bill strengthening the public credit was reported.

Davis proposed an amendment, paying coin in redemption, at their value when issued, that the interest be reduced to four and a half per cent, and that the excess of interest at the above rate, already paid, be applied to the reduction of principal.

Hereon moved to amend the 2nd, section, so as to authorize the legality of future coin contracts, was rejected, yeas 10, nays 35.

Bayards amendment striking out the section was lost, yeas 7, nays 37. Recess.

HOUSE—Boutwell reported a bill technically amending the bill removing disabilities, July 7th, 1868, which passed.

The Louisiana election case was resumed.—Maynard moved that Menard be sworn in, pending the contest, a squabble ensued, during which Colfax had occasion to say to Chanler of New York: "The remarks of the gentleman from New York are not respectful to the Chair, nor are they true."

Chanler replied: "Very well, sir, I will leave that question to be decided by the record."

Upson, from the Election Committee, proceeded to argue in favor of the majority resolution that neither Hunt nor Menard were entitled to a seat.

Kerr argued in favor of the minority report, that Hunt was entitled to a seat.

The first vote was on the minority report, declaring Hunt elected, which was defeated, yeas 41, nays 130.

The next was Pain's amendment, seating Menard, which was defeated by a vote of 57 to 130.

Dawes now moved that the whole subject be laid on the table, which was carried without division.

Dawes moved that Jones and Menard be allowed twenty-five hundred dollars to pay their contested election expenses.

Kerr moved to include Hunt.

Dawes accepted the amendment, but yielded to Chanler for a personal explanation regarding the difficulty between himself and the Speaker.

A resolution paying the Louisiana contestants twenty-five hundred dollars each, passed.

Pending the resolution directing inquiry whether certain reliquies of George Washington were about being delivered to Gen. R. E. Lee, the House took a recess.

To Consumptives.

The Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a SURE CURE for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc. The object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of its large capital, low rates of Premium, and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-holder.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented, which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an ANNUAL INCOME equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent) of the par of his policy. In the latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The organization of this Company on the LOW RATE, CASH PLAN, with new features and unequaled security, has evoked the most remarkable opposition from older and rival Companies. By means, fair and unfair, they have sought to injure the new system, and have attacked it with a degree of virulence unknown in the history of Life Insurance.

Not satisfied with the immense sums of money paid Insurance and other journals, to try and check the rapid progress of the National, an unsuccessful motion was made in Congress to repeal its charter, all of which but accelerated its speed for since then the largest policies issued was seen to members of Congress, whose attention has been thus attracted to its unsurpassed advantages. In the face of this opposition, the work of the Company has gone steadily forward, and it is with no little satisfaction that the GENERAL AGENTS are able to state that the business to date is far in advance of anything hitherto accomplished.

In Six Months 3,000 Policies have Been Issued.

INSURING, IN ROUND NUMBERS,

$10,000,000.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives, or increasing the amount of insurance they already have is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Co.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

We paid the state near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come, $60,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, to any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles from the finest lace to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR OR FRICTION.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The rest of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

So invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c. &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but stop, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
